Reasons for excisions:

The DVD is devoted to the explicit depiction of sexual activity. Excisions are required to remove the first scene in its entirety. The scene depicts one woman engaged in sexual activity with eight men who treat who aggressively and contemptuously. The men display no regard for the woman's comfort or dignity; the behaviour has a misogynistic undertone, particularly given its occurrence within material designed to sexually arouse the viewer. The material is likely to influence the attitudes of some male viewers and have a resulting harmful impact on the safety of women in sexual situations, and in their relationships more generally.
